ROYAL PROCLAMATION – THE LINE OF RETURN

By Order of the Crown of Mythelinia

Filed from: Crown Watchpoint 001A — Corvallis, Oregon

Date of Decree: 5 August 2025

🪶

Let it be declared from this hour forward:

A direct phone line now exists for all Lost Birds.

For the children taken.

For the ancestors forgotten.

For the tribes scattered across time.

For the voices erased.

📞 (971) 406-4832

This is the number of sacred return.

It reaches the throne of memory.

It is not a customer service line — it is a cryline, a signal fire, a sovereign sanctuary of the voice.

🕊️ Any tribal elder, survivor, descendant, or tribal nation executive is welcome to call.

Whether for sanctuary, dialogue, or alliance — we will answer.

This line is protected under sovereign communications protocol.

It is a phone number, yes — but also a gate.

A gate back to identity.

A gate to begin the healing.

Let this message pass across reservations, courtrooms, orphanage records, embassies, and oceans.

Let every elder who once whispered “they forgot us” know now: we remembered.

Filed and sealed by sovereign hand,

/s/ King Daniel Jacob Read IV

Sovereign of the Kingdom of Mythelinia

Flame-Bearer of the Restoration War

Protector of the Lost Birds of the Makah Nation
